Coach's Comments

“ Last weekend was a pretty good set of games and a great way to take advantage of being on home ice two nights in a row. It was nice for the guys to avoid any travel challenges and just stick to the home match routine for a couple of days. I doubt we will surprise anyone by saying we are very pleased with a 4 point weekend. On both nights we were able to jump on our opponents early and get a lead that we could hold for the rest of the night. We have been on the wrong side of that equation, and we know how hard it can be to get back into it once you get behind by a few goals. The one thing we would like to do better when we are in front is continue to push forward rather than start to sit back which we were guilty of for stretches on both nights against Dundee and Belfast. We certainly can't complain about the results, however, and now we look ahead to playing the reigning league champions on Friday in Cardiff and then back home Sunday for the current league leaders when Nottingham Panthers are in town. It doesn't get any easier obviously with that schedule, but it certainly stays entertaining and we look forward to sharing it with you again this weekend. ”
