Coach's Comments

“ We didn't have a bad night at all in Milton Keynes on Wednesday but we would have liked to have come back with both points instead of just the single obviously. Like I said after the game that result seems like the same one every time we play them, but we can only now look ahead to what is in front. Saturday we will be at Coventry and then at home to Fife Flyers. Hopefully we play well, but we hope to also find a way to put up some offence to get back into the win column. Speaking of offence, in terms of deepening our roster, it was welcome news this week to be through most of the paperwork requirements for the signing of Geoff Walker who will likely be training with us from Tuesday, and in the line-up for our visit to Dundee on Nov 25th. He will not only help us offensively, but he is a physical presence that will also be a big part of his contribution to the club. We hope you can join us at home on Sunday as we look forward to welcoming Fife Flyers to Spectrum for the first time since a best of 3 playoff series in the spring of 2005. ”
