Coach's Comments

“ We were like a different team on Sunday when we got back to home ice. It was not a good evening at Coventry by any definition, and it was important to be able to put that behind us as soon as we could. Fortunately on Sunday we converted a lot of our good chances to deliver a win at a time when we really needed one. It is a significant mental challenge to turn it around like that under any conditions, but when the other team scores first immediately in the 2nd game there is always a chance that things can really go sour from there. A great deal of credit is due to our guys for making sure that didn't happen. We are up against it again on Saturday with the long trip into Dundee then a morning arrival Sunday for a quick re-set to take on Milton Keynes Lightning here. More than any other team this season they have certainly had our number. We don't feel like they have totally dominated or outclassed us, but you can't argue with 5 losses in 5 tries against the same team. We have to find a way to solve that puzzle, and hopefully get a result. This week we announced the departure of Andy McKinney for personal family reasons. His coaches, his teammates and the entire organisation are very sorry to see him go, but there is a bigger picture in life than hockey and he is definitely making a good choice and doing what he needs to do. He will be missed in this locker room. We wish him all the best. Hopefully we can win a couple for him this weekend, and we look forward to sharing the action with all of our fans. ”
